TITLE: UNIT CHAIRPERSON

REPORTS TO: Principal

- QUALIFICATIONS: 1. A valid New Jersey Teacher's Certificate
 - 2. Experience in leadership or demonstrated potential to perform in the area of responsibility indicated below.
 - 3. Coursework taken beyond the Bachelor's degree

JOB GOAL: To provide leadership, coordination and innovation in assigned interdisciplinary areas, so that each student may derive maximum benefit from his/her involvement with that unit.

PERFORMANCE RESPONSIBILITIES:

- 1. Coordinates all "student matters" within the unit to make sure that all students are aided in the important transition between the self-contained elementary classroom and the individually scheduled high school.
- 2. Communicates regularly with the Principal regarding matters of importance involving the Unit in the school.
- 3. Provides leadership in handling discipline cases within the Unit before referring same to the Assistant Principal.
- 4. Communicates regularly with parents/guardians on matters involving students in the Unit.
- 5. works closely with guidance in all matters pertaining to the Unit such as grouping, report cards, progress reports, commendations, etc.
- 6. Coordinates curricular considerations with the coordinator of instruction for the building and the Principal.
- 7. Provides leadership and direction for the members of his/her Unit in all matters pertaining to the school, including scheduling room usage, materials, etc.
- 8. Conducts Unit meetings and attends relevant school, district, and professional meetings, as necessary.
- 9. Performs other duties as delegated by the Principal.

APPROVED: August 3, 2004